About Serrelli Street

Serrelli Street is the newest outlet for Chicago's oldest Italian Beef recipe. It was first sold in Serrelli's West Side store in 1934 and has enjoyed a loyal following ever since. Even today, customers drive to our only store to buy the buckets of beef, gravy, sausage and other delicious foods we offer. The newest difference is that transplanted Chicagoans and out-of-town fans can now have Serrelli's anywhere in the U.S.A. It's delivered to your door cooked and frozen in it's own gravy and secret spices with French rolls, peppers and Giardinara all included. It comes in an insulated foam chest with re-usable freezer packs and delivered by FedEx 2nd day air. Serrelli's has kept growing to meet demand with more space, ovens and freezers, but never changing the original process or recipe. Still without additives or preservatives.

About shipping.

We ship FedEx 2day air, Monday through Wednesday. Deliveries are scheduled to arrive during the week to keep costs reasonable. Orders placed before 3p.m. are shipped immediately. Orders placed Thursday through Sunday will be shipped the following Monday. Packages will be left without signature due to their perishable nature. Our list prices do not include shipping which is calculated by package, weight and distance from Chicago. Your order will be verified by email with a total including shipping. A la Carte orders require a separate charge for shipping.
